JULY 27–AUGUST 30, 2019

Welcome

WITH THE NEW COLD BREW CARAFE
FOR ONE WEEK ONLY

No Time to Waste

Share the opportunity with summer side hustlers. The new August Gig Kit is now available!

You've been out there gigging all summer long, and added many new team members to our Tupperware family along the way. Great job! As summer is coming to a close, there's no time to waste in seeking out those side hustlers and offering them the opportunity with the August Gig Kit (and then some).

Environment Tip

From the Home Office

"When dining in a place that has a self-service drink system, fill the Medium Eco Bottle from your Summer Gig Kit with water to reduce the amount of one-time use serving ware."

This brand new Fall &
Holiday catalog product is available only to new Consultants and their recruiters
for one week.

*The coupon can be applied toward any Tupperware product currently available in the catalog (except the Host Gift Specials) on a non-party Consultant order. The $85 in retail value (not discounted Consultant cost) is subtracted from the order total after Shipping and Tax is calculated (it cannot be used toward shipping or tax). Should their item exceed the retail credit, they can still choose it and pay the difference. The coupon is for one-time use, with any unused amount forfeited, so it cannot be split into two orders of $42.50, for example. They also will not earn commission or sales credit for this $85, but would earn both on any retail dollar amount above this on the order. Please note that in the Consultant detail section of the order summary, it will show the $85 as included in sales credit even though it is not. Their T4A value will be for the amount of the credit used.

All awards are subject to substitution.
