MODULAR MATES[®] CONTAINERS

When you're in need of a modular makeover (and who isn't?), your Tupperware Consultant is the one to call for Custom Kitchen Planning. Go for total reorganization or learn how to put the perfect staples in your pantry so you're ready to make an awesome variety of meals.

Pick a date to hold a Custom Kitchen Planning session (during December 30, 2017–January 26, 2018) and you'll receive the Small Spice Shaker, with your choice of Black or Popsicle seal, FREE.

These building blocks for busy families fit perfectly into your life. Learn more:

Take a peek: Transparent viewing panels help you quickly identify contents and plan your grocery list at a glance.

Vegan? Gluten-free?: Keep separate sets for those in your family on separate diets. Using different seal colors is helpful, available now for a limited time.

Bulk savings: Buy food in bulk without fear of spoilage. You're saving money, time, and the excess packaging of smaller, more frequent purchases.

Simple math: Containers are named according to height, so to make it modular, just add it up. For example, two Oval 1s = one Oval 2, and one Oval 1 + one Oval 3 = one Oval 4.

Custom Kitchen Planning Tally Sheet

Tally how many of each you need for easy ordering, and then easy organizing.
