

Recruits Are In Your Future

- STOP Take the time to be friendly. Greet guests as they arrive, get to know them, repeat their name, include them in the demonstration, let them share ideas.
- LOOK Watch for people who would make a nice reflection on our Company. Make a mental note of big smiles and friendly, happy people. Look your very best.
- LISTEN Listen for clues that indicate a need or desire like: “That’s all my budget will allow this week.” Or “My husband was recently laid off from work.” or “The kids are really getting to me, I wish I had some me time.”

These are all signs of recruit leads. Pick out at least two from every activity and let your Manager know about them right away. Get your share of the recruiting gifts and/or cash!

I stopped, looked and listened all week long! I have 4 recruit leads...please call them and help me help them to a great Tupperware Career!
